Q & A

- I only shoot film can I attend?

YES, Both digital and film photographers are welcome to attend

- How will the styled shoots work?

There will be 4 themed areas with 5 stations. There will be a maximum of 10 photographers per theme and each Station will have 2 photographers. Each group will have 1 hour to shoot each theme. There will be a 15-minute break in between each rotation for bathroom and water breaks.

- Will I be able to submit the shoots to Southern Bride?

Yes, there is an additional fee to enter a contest for awards and consideration to be featured in Southern Bride magazine/blog and social media.

- Will I be able to submit the shoots to other publications/blogs?

If you join the competition for Southern Bride, and you are selected, we ask that you wait to submit to other blogs/publications until after the Southern Bride publication date. Then you are free to submit everywhere you like.

- Are there other costs that I need to know about?

You will be responsible for your own transportation, hotel room, meals, and contest. Lunch & Wrap Reception is included with the fee.

- Can I bring an assistant?

They would be considered a participant and therefore the same participant fees would apply to them.

- Can I post my images on my social media?

Yes, but you must give credit to all vendors for that theme. All photographers will be required to sign an agreement.

- Do I have to share my images?

Yes, but only with vendors from that theme. Vendors must provide your photo credit on everything they use. All parties will be required to sign an agreement.

A long wooden pier extends from the foreground into the ocean, leading towards a covered pavilion at the end. The sky is a mix of soft pinks and blues, suggesting sunset or sunrise. The water is calm with gentle ripples. A yellow button with the text 'CLICK HERE' is overlaid on the bottom of the pier.
